Dealers celebrate Burns Night with selling exhibitions of portrait miniatures and books

A portrait miniature of Robert Burns' (1759-96) best friend is part of a pop up exhibition in Mayfair ahead of Burns Night.

A portrait miniature of Robert Graham of Fintry (1749-1815) with The Limner Company.

Our upcoming exhibition at Peter Harrington Rare Books was featured in an article in the Antiques Trade Gazette written by Laura Chesters.

In honour of Burns Night this weekend, you can view a portrait miniature of the poet's dear friend and confidant Robert Graham of Fintry – with two others depicting one of his sons and one of his daughters. These miniatures are on display starting Thursday 22 January 2026 alongside some fine editions of Robert Burns' writings on sale with Peter Harrington Rare Books.
